What are RLCs?

There are 11 Residence Halls on campus: nine of which house Residential Learning Communities (RLCs), one that serves sophomores (Nobili Hall), and one that serves juniors and seniors (University Villas). We also have Neighborhood Units, located in the neighborhoods adjacent to campus, which are full house rentals managed by the Housing Office.

RLC	Residence Hall	Theme
Alpha	Graham Hall	Innovation, Integrity, and Impact
Cura	Finn Hall	Cura Personalis (care for the whole person)
Cyphi	Swig Hall	Sustainability and the Arts
da Vinci	Casa Italiana Hall	Italian Culture and Heritage (focus on Science, Engineering, and the Arts)
Loyola	Sobrato Hall	Faith and Social Justice
Magis	Campisi & Sanfilippo Halls	Seeking More for the Common Good
Modern Perspectives	Dunne Hall	Ethics and Leadership in the 21st Century
Unity	McLaughlin-Walsh Hall	Engaging Diversity for the Common Good
