Students must declare the Graphic Design minor no later than before the Fall of junior year. Students cannot simultaneously declare a graphic design minor and animation and illustration minor, studio art minor or studio art major. Studio Art majors must refer to the Studio Art Major Check Sheet for the major and emphasis requirements. No more than four study abroad courses may be accepted for the graphic design minor. Study abroad courses in art history are not accepted for the graphic design minor. Only approved courses from the study abroad course equivalency database may be accepted as transfer credit.

Studio Art Major with Graphic Design Emphasis

Studio art majors have the option of completing a graphic design emphasis within the major by taking 3 specific graphic design courses as part of the studio art major's six ARTS elective courses. Like the general studio art major, the graphic design emphasis requires the four foundation ARTS courses, four ARTH courses, ARTS 100, 190, and 196, and six additional studio ARTS elective courses; however, 3 of the elective courses need to be specific to graphic design as listed below. Completion of the emphasis will be noted on the student's transcript. The graphic design emphasis is for studio art majors only. Students may only complete one emphasis.

Specific elective requirements to fulfill the Graphic Design emphasis:
● One lower-division from ARTS 70 or 75
● Two upper-division from ARTS 170, 173, 175, 177, 178 or 180

Students are personally responsible for knowing all the academic regulations affecting their program of study and for completing all degree requirements as set forth by the University, their college or school, and academic department(s). Failure to understand these regulations and requirements does not relieve a student of responsibility (Undergraduate Bulletin).
