The HUB offers help with public speaking!

Writing partners can help you with
- Content
- Ideas
- Organization
- Practicing in front of an actual audience

To make an appointment,

- Log in to https://scu.mywconline.com
- Select "Public Speaking" from the pulldown menu:

What to prepare

Stop by during any stage of your project – even when you're starting to brainstorm about your topic and presentation.

When you meet with your writing partner, bring any details about the presentation or assignment, and feel free to specify what you most want to work on.

You can also plan to record yourself practicing your presentation!
